CONSTANCE TALMADGE AT THE BUTLER THEATRE

"A Pair of Silk Stockings" with the screen star, Constance Talmadge in the leading role, and which will be the headline attraction at the Butler theatre today, is a breezy story brimful of fun, and starts off with a quarrel between two young English married people over which make of motor car they should buy, and soon they are divorced—Later they meet at a country house, for Mollie in having bought the wrong make of car, breaks it down, and finds herself put up at the house where her ex-husband is a guest. Sam is just about to take part in amateur theatricals and made up in his costume he seeks Mollie's room to patch up their quarrel. Before Mollie's arrival the room has been occupied by Bagnal, who now returns. Mollie isn't there when Sam arrives and he hides in the closet. Bagnal however, returns and encounters Mollie, who remarks that she still loves Sam, who registers his joy so noisily in his hiding place that the two rush to see who is concealed. Prigged out, and unrecognized they find Sam with the first thing available, a pair of Mollie's best silk stockings and lock him in the bath room. Meanwhile Sam escapes and returns to the assembly in his own attire, plus the silk stockings. Mollie discovers the mystery is cleared and deciding Sam's car is the best, remarries him then and there.
